Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. The 71 questions to document are the yield of this page: 38 accesses to grant, 21 judgements, 12 procedures to write. A tool that hid them to improve its answer rate would manufacture doctrine instead of naming a gap.

Situation	Questions	Share
Sourced answer, with procedure and date	541	88%
Question to document	71	12%
Total	612	100%

How an answer is worded

Element	Present?	Example
The procedure cited	Yes	Procedure of 14/03/2026
Its date	Yes	14/03/2026

Element	Present?	Example
The exact point	Yes	Point 4.2
The passage	Yes	"passed within three working days..."
A rewording with no source	No	—

> The date matters as much as the answer. A 2019 procedure and a March one are not quoted the same way, and an officer who reads the date knows whether to check.

When two documents say different things

What the agent does	Done?
Give both	Yes
Give their dates	Yes
Say which is more recent	Yes
Say which applies	No

A recent procedure does not always repeal an older one. Deciding on the department's behalf would be exactly the kind of service one does not render: it would look like efficiency and carry the weight of a decision.
