Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. The question is never "should it be stopped" but "what depends on it".

Knowledge of dependencies	Number of agents
Dependencies known	24 of 41
Unknown	17

What is prepared before any shutdown

Element	Supplied?
What the agent reads	Yes
What it writes	Yes
Who calls it	Yes

Element	Supplied?
What stops with it	Yes

That document takes an hour when the agent is declared, and it is impossible to produce when it is not.

The observation period

Result across 5 agents	Count
No calls in a month — stopped safely	3
Served a department that did not know it depended on them	2

Stopping an agent because it costs little and may serve nothing: the "may" is precisely what has to be resolved beforehand.

Scope of this document: the service operated by Blue Lemon Agent. For an agent deployed at your premises, the applicable location is that of the architecture set out in the quotation and verified before commissioning; local execution is announced only for the configuration explicitly described and accepted in the quotation; the applicable isolation depends on the deployment mode set out in the quotation, no dedicated isolation being presumed; the encryption mechanisms in transit and at rest, their components and key management are those documented for the architecture chosen; roles and permissions are configured and accepted for the identities and systems actually connected; the events logged, their content, their retention period and who may access them are defined for the deployment chosen.
