Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for the demonstration. This document exists because the figure the platform publishes about itself. A base searchable at 99.0% can be stated; a base announced as 100% searchable gets found out the day the missing document is the one an audit needs. OCR rebuilds the text of a document image so it becomes searchable.

What could not be indexed, and why

Cause	Documents	What was done	Remaining
Scans made before 2011, with no text under the image	6,100	Run through OCR	0
Files protected by a password the source does not hold	1,480	Listed, never forced	1,480 — administrators' decision

Cause	Documents	What was done	Remaining
Drawings in a proprietary design format	720	Parts list read, annotations not read	720
Total on the first pass	8,300 — 3.9% of the base	—	2,200 — 1.0% of the base

The measured effect of OCR

Measure	Before	After
Share of the base outside the index	3.9%	1.0%
Searchable documents	205,700	211,800

What is proposed for the 2,200

Proposal	Expected effect	Who decides
Release the password of the 300 most consulted protected files	Un-indexed share below 0.9%	The document governance administrators
Export the parts lists of the 720 proprietary drawings	The drawing becomes findable by its parts list, not by its annotations	The IT department
Leave the other 1,180 outside the index	Consulted 0 times in six months — the effort is not justified	Platform proposal

> No protected file is ever forced, in any case. The platform reads what the source entitles it to read: bypassing a protection would not be a service rendered, it would be a breach opened in the company's most closely guarded documents.
