Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for the demonstration. This is not a refusal in disguise, it is the opposite: the platform has set everything up and executes within minutes. What it asks for is the written decision of those who carry the contractual responsibility — the document governance administrators.

The four limits of the mandate

Limit	Proposed value	Why that limit
Scope	3,860 documents with no clause + 4 production run files named individually out of the 260	Strictly what the work described by industrial management requires
Duration	Until 31/12/2026	A review at expiry, otherwise the access lapses on its own
People	The 14 of the design office, designated by their role	A departure or a transfer withdraws the access with no intervention

Limit	Proposed value	Why that limit
Withdrawal	In a word, with no notice and no reason to give	A mandate that cannot be withdrawn is not a mandate

The circuit, and what it costs in time

Step	Who	Time
Document-by-document effect calculated	The platform	Done
Mandate drafted and attached	The platform	Done
Signature	Two of the five administrators	The only step remaining
Application of the matrix	The platform	A few minutes
Report of what changed	The platform	Immediate, in the log

The figure showing the framework has not slowed the service down: of the 46 opening requests in the half-year, 41 were applied in under two hours after signature. The average opening time went from 9 days to 2 hours — because the file arrives ready and the discussion is about the decision rather than the preparation.

What the mandate never covers

Act	Regime
Modifying a document in a source	Impossible — the platform is read-only
Publishing a reference version	Quality manager, outside the access mandate
Widening the scope during the mandate	New mandate, new signature
