Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. An absence asserted without a method is worth nothing. This document gives, for each of the three, what was searched for and what was found.

Absence 1 — the costing

Term searched	Occurrences	Attached to a recommendation
cost	6	0
budget	5	0
amount	4	0
euro	2	0
Total	17	0

All seventeen occurrences sit between pages 11 and 19, in the budgetary context section. None appears between pages 158 and 174, where the recommendations are.

Absence 2 — the timetable

Type of date found	Count	Enforceable?
Recall of a past event	23	No
Publication date of a text	9	No
Future deadline	1	Yes — appendix 4, p. 187

Absence 3 — small authorities

Check	Result	Page
Scope announced	"all authorities"	p. 5
3,500-resident threshold mentioned?	Nowhere	search across 214 pp.
Sample size	42 authorities	p. 21
Smallest authority observed	8,200 residents	p. 21

The report announces a scope that includes small authorities and observed none. That is not a contradiction in the report: it is a gap between its announced scope and its sample, and it is recorded here without drawing a consequence.

What the agent establishes, and what it leaves you to draw from it

The report observed no authority under 3,500 residents: that is a fact, and it reaches you recorded, with no conclusion drawn. The conclusion belongs to the service — caution in transposing, a request for clarification from the authors, or nothing. You decide on a measured gap instead of an impression left by a reading.
