Fictional document — demonstration example
This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. The report is not summarised here. That was not the need: the need was to know that a deadline thirty-nine days away was sleeping in an appendix.

The passage, quoted

"The authorities concerned shall submit their action programme by 15 September 2026 at the latest."

Page 187, appendix 4, final paragraph.

What was checked before flagging it

Check	Result	Page
Does the authority appear in the scope?	Yes	p. 12
Is the deadline subject to a condition?	No	p. 187
Is another date substituted elsewhere?	No	search across 214 pp.

Is the action programme defined?	Yes	pp. 184 to 186

> The first row is what turns general information into an obligation of your own. A report may contain twenty deadlines concerning nobody here; this one names the authority, on page 12.

What the expected action programme must contain, per the report

Element	Page
Quantified objectives	p. 184
Implementation timetable	p. 185
Resources allocated	p. 185
Monitoring arrangements	p. 186

Those four points are what the report asks for. They are not drafted here: they say what has to be produced in thirty-nine days.
