Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. An agent's output is a reading, not a source.

Item	Kept?	What it allows
Processing chains: agent, source, version, date, recipient	Yes	Reconstructing a decision
Contradictions found and their outcome	Yes	Evidencing the catch-up
Agents' outputs and what becomes of them	Yes	Seeing who produces into the void
Suspensions and their reason	Yes	Justifying a stop
Non-reconstructible processings	Yes	Listing them rather than ignoring them
Anything describing a requester	No	—

What "reconstructible" means

The rule that holds the whole thing up

An agent never cites another agent as a source. A reading that cites another drifts from the original at every step, with nothing signalling it.

What nobody watches

People who open it	0
The agent's operation	Perfect

For the company to settle
