Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. Supervision handles no case: it watches the six agents that do.

#	Flag	On what	Recipient	Chase
1	31 contradictions between agents	2,340 processings	Department lead	Weekly
2	14 agent-to-agent citations	Chain logs	Whoever configured the chain	Monthly
3	1 agent with no consumed output for 7 weeks	Output consumption	Whoever asked for that agent	Monthly
4	9 chains that cannot be reconstructed	Chain logs	Flagged as such	—

Stopping an agent stays a human decision	A stop leaves cases stranded: you get the reason, the volume affected and the owner to warn, and you settle it knowingly
Configuration stays with the agent's owner	The gap is flagged to whoever asked for that agent: they fix their own service, and nobody alters a service they are not responsible for
Supervision flags, it does not produce	An output corrected by the supervisor would be an output with no author: your chain of responsibility stays readable end to end
An incomplete chain is flagged as such	The 9 chains that cannot be reconstructed come back to you as such: a rebuilt chain would look like a real one, and that is the one that would be produced in an appeal
Each agent is measured on its own cases	They do not handle the same acts: you follow real usage — seven weeks with no consumption of the outputs, for instance — instead of a ranking that means nothing

Scope of this document: the service operated by Blue Lemon Agent. For an agent deployed at your premises, the applicable location is that of the architecture set out in the quotation and verified before commissioning; local execution is announced only for the configuration explicitly described and accepted in the quotation; the applicable isolation depends on the deployment mode set out in the quotation, no dedicated isolation being presumed; the encryption mechanisms in transit and at rest, their components and key management are those documented for the architecture chosen; roles and permissions are configured and accepted for the identities and systems actually connected; the events logged, their content, their retention period and who may access them are defined for the deployment chosen.
