Fictional document — demonstration example

This document is produced by the Blue Lemon Agent website to illustrate what an AI agent hands to its users. The companies, matters, amounts and people in it are invented. It has no legal, accounting or commercial value.

Fictional document, produced for demonstration. The first flag is the only one carrying an enforceable time limit. It is the one surfaced first, and the only one with a 24-hour chase.

#	Flag	What triggered it	Urgency	Recipient	Chase
1	Appeal, two-month window	"I challenge", decision of 12/06 attached	4 working days	Mailroom + appeals team	24 h
2	3 letters, one case	Same reference, 3 spellings	Partial answer likely	The 3 departments + handler	3 d
3	Recorded delivery, receipt unmatched	Register incomplete	Enforceable date missing	Mailroom	3 d
4	11 letters unrouted	> 5 days waiting	No deadline identified	Mailroom	7 d

Flag 1 — the two dates

Element	Value	Source
Decision challenged	12/06/2026	Attached to the letter
Notification recorded	14/06/2026	Authority's register
Applicable window	2 months	Stated on the decision
Expiry	14/08/2026	Computed from notification
Working days remaining	4	—

> The letter was not lost: it was properly scanned and properly registered. It went to the department that knows the case, which is both sensible and wrong — that department does not handle appeals and parked it pending an opinion.

Four acts kept by the mail office — the appeal, meanwhile, is on the right desk before the deadline

The act, kept by the office	Why it is theirs
Reroute a letter without approval	A reroute changes who answers and under what deadline
Answer a letter	No reply is drafted or sent
Delete a letter	No letter is ever deleted
File without a recipient	An unattached letter goes to the mailroom
